

As Chief Financial Officer of the P.J.W. Restaurant Group, William Love is responsible for all financial affairs including treasury, funding, tax, legal, risk management and accounting for all corporate business needs and as a financial advisor to the CEO.

A member of the P.J.W. Restaurant Group for more than a decade, he has developed an enthusiasm for the hospitality industry and is an advocate as to regulatory and tax matters impacting the industry. Bill has had extensive experience at a senior level of corporate financial management for a number of public and privately held companies.

Prior to his current post, he joined a growing public company as a division controller and after only one year rose to become CFO then shortly added the titles of EVP Finance and board member. Before that, he was a corporate controller and board secretary of a publicly held company responsible for all internal and external financial reporting and tax compliance while participating in M&A activities. Bill also served six years as a reservist with the U.S. Army Security Agency.

He started his career as an intern while attending Drexel University with the international accounting firm now branded as Deloitte & Touche. He continued with the firm as a CPA in both the audit and tax departments after graduating from Drexel where he was inducted into the business honorary society.

FONDEST MEMORY OF P.J.W. RESTAURANT GROUP

“It was January 2005 after I was retired for three months when Owner/CEO Bob Platzer asked me to help the company after his CFO left. I thought I would do it for six months. Fast forward to present day, our sales will have quadrupled by the end of the year, stores almost tripled and the profit graph looks like a hockey stick. It has been a great ride and the journey is just beginning. The company’s success has been a team sport but sanctioned me to be a finalist in 2017 for New Jersey CFO of the year and Bob Platzer was the 2017 E&Y Entrepreneur of the Year for hospitality in the Greater Philadelphia Area.”
